BLACK HAND THREAT.

Abe Marks, a saloonkeeper, at 622 east Broad street, Richmond, is the recipient of a letter, alleged to have been written by a fellow Italian, in which he is warned that unless Joseph Morra, who lives in a room above the saloon, is put out, his saloon and contents will be blown to atoms.

Sometime ago Morra, who is a married man, was arrested and acquitted on a charge of having committed a criminal assault upon a 13-year-old Italian girl, and since then he has received numerous threats against his life, which he supposes to have been written by the father of the girl. Morra says he will protect Marks at any hazard.

The letter received by Marks read:
"If you don't want your bar blown up, you better let Joe Morra move, because he has done wrong in this city, and has many enemies. If you don't want to get in trouble, you better make him move."
(Signed) "BLACK HAND."

MARRIED WHILE IN CELL.

Hans Albert, a violinist of international fame, who has been held for several months within the jurisdiction of the county court on the charge of larceny, was on Monday at Cripple Creek, Col., pronounced of sound mind and set at liberty.

The decision, according to several attorneys, may cause the question to arise as to whether Albert is married or single, and if he was in sound mind when he, as a prisoner on July 28, extended his hand through the bars of a window at the county jail and grasped the hand of Grace Hadel, of Ottumwa, Ia., while a minister on the outside pronounced the pair man and wife.

The marriage was pronounced void, as Albert had not received a certificate to the effect that he had been restored to reason and Miss Hadel returned to her home.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are small pills, easy to take, gentle and sure. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

THE SOUTHERN RAILWAY.

Fairfax Harrison, vice president of the Southern Railway, said yesterday at his office in New York that the increased net earnings of the road since last March have not been brought about by economies in the expense of the property, in spite of the fact that the gross earnings have shown a large falling off. He made the remarkable statement that for July, when the total operating revenues showed a decrease of $642,672 as compared with last year, the total operating income for the month was $1,196,773, an increase of $405,576 over July, 1907.

"The remarkable showing of control of expenses has given rise to comment suggesting that such results have been secured at the expense of the conservative upkeep of the property. This view is not justified by the facts," said Mr.
Harrison. "Not only has the road been kept up in all respects necessary for the safe and prompt movement of trains, but it has been materially strengthened in the past year."

HOLLAND AND VENEZUELA.

The people of Holland are fearful that when the last note of the Dutch government to President Castro of Venezuela is made public, it will be found that Holland has surrendered in a large measure to Castro and has backed down from the threatening attitude she first assumed. The foreign office's current statement that the note has produced the desired "quieting effect" is what arouses the apprehension of the public.
The note was presented to Senor Paul, the Venezuela foreign minister, through Baron Seckendorff, the German minister to Caracas, and it is expected that it will pave the way for an amicable adjustment of the differences between the two countries. As President Castro has not receded from his independent and warlike attitude it is assumed that the note is far more conciliatory than will comport with the general feeling of the Hollanders.

THE beautiful colored leaves, tinted in the many shades of the rainbow, remind us that the fall season is on us with its warm days and breezing and cool evenings.

It is the delight of one to view nature in her evolution and be a part in her beautiful resources and health-giving virtues.
But we would be negligent to the detriment of our health and vitality if we failed to call your attention to our liquors—the su-
